The minutes were approved without any changes
5. Future activities of ESPC
  - 5.1 Publication of the papers of the ECPC 2016

Three times we had JOSE to publish the papers. They no longer do this.

Belgium Brugge papers were planned to be placed on the website of ECPC, but this was not completed.

Journal of Textiles and Engineer in Turkey offered to print 10-20 papers depending on the number of pages. The Magazine representatives are present at the meeting. We would need a person to coordinate, which would be coordinated by Bengi for this session, from the abstract and the presentation to a full report that could be submitted and potential review panel.

Procedure

1. Ask presenters if they would like to submit papers for publication to this Journal (only those that are presenting)
2. If enough papers, Bengi Kutlu will organise a survey of the board members (and journal) to select to top number
3. The selection is put forward for submission and review for the Journal.

Due to the number of cancellation the next organisers could consider to ask registrants to pay before their accepted papers are included into the programme.

6. Next conference arrangements, responsibility, date, place

ESPC organises ECPC conferences every 2 years on even years. The proposal discussed was to have regional (Europe) meetings every 2 years and have in conjunction with one of the regional meetings an international meeting and rotate these international meetings over the different world regions, but have them in different periods of the year (eg. Spring and Fall). Should ECPC go to move to an international meeting? The conclusion from the discussion was to maintain the ECPC meetings every two year and try the international meeting in an alternate year in 2019.

The issue is travelling. Every year the risk of having the same presentations if the sessions are too close to each other. Can we combine different meetings together such as standardisation or EU vertical group meeting?

Proposal

- ECPC organized by Citeve in Portugal in 2018, is suggested to be held in May
- ASPC is proposing a meeting 2019 in Korea, no date yet

Joint ECPC with ASTM is something that would need to be checked as we have heard nothing from them. Need to check if still in order. Eric van Wely check with Anugrah Shaw

7. Any other business

- Funding and bank account – Henk Vanhoutte sent email that it is possible and the conference should have a profit. Bengi Kutlu to confirm profit during the meeting. If so ask Henk Vanhoutte to organise the bank account. A reminder: the purpose of the funding is to promote the ESPC and the ECPC meeting. One of the considerations from the last meeting was to use the funding for example website.

It has been proposed to maintain the funding of ESPC at 5% of the conference fees.
